THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Brooklyn Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor.

Thirty-two years have elapsed since a number of benevolent gentlemen of this city, witnessing the suffering of the poor during the winter months, and seeing the advantage to be gained by organized effort, formed this Society, which to this day remains as a monument of their love and sympathy. Foremost in this work appears the name of Seth Low, its first president, followed in turn by Stephen Crowell, George Hall, and Reuben W. Ropes, who, by their judicious management, have brought the Society to its present prosperous condition. The record of the past year affords ample proof that it has secured a firm hole on the confidence of the benevolent of the city, by their noble gifts in time and money. The population has increased during this period from a few thousands to an extent which places it the third city in the Union. With this large increase of population, there is, of necessity, a greater number of those needing assistance, and we hazard nothing in saying that a much larger sum than we have yet received could be advantageously used, thus bringing joy and happiness to many suffering households.

The first printed report of this Society, which is for the year ending October 1, 1845, shows that the amount received was $2,259, and the amount expended was $2,169, and that aid was rendered to 1,614 persons. During the year just closed we have received $26,201, and expended $25,505, with which we have assisted over 24,000 individuals. The comparison of these figures speaks for itself, showing not only the increased demand for assistance, necessitated by the increase of population, but the disposition and ability of the patrons of the association to respond to the appeals of the Society, in a measure somewhat commensurate with its wants.

The Society, since its organization, has distributed for the relief of the poor (exclusive of the amount paid for its current expenses) over three hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Who can estimate the amount of suffering relieved, and the homes cheered during these many years, by the beneficent operations of this association?

While taking this retrospect of the past, it becomes us to be thankful to God, who has raised up men who have been willing to work faithfully in its behalf, and contribute liberally to its support. The matured experience of those who have, for many years, controlled its management, together with the younger and more active who have become associated with them, promise for the future a wise and vigorous prosecution of its labors.

The financial statement for the year ending October 1, 1875, is as follows:

It is to the faithful efforts of our voluntary solicitors that we are enabled to record the fact, that, notwithstanding during the year just closed we have not received any donations from societies, which, in the previous year amounted to seventeen hundred dollars, the amount of our contributions has been nearly as large as that of the preceding year.

Over three thousand yards of goods have been made up into bedding and garments, without cost to the society, and distributed among the poor; a benevolent lady cutting out the garments, and paying those who make them up by orders on the society for coal and provisions; thus affording comfort and assistance to a great number of persons with little outlay of money.

The past year has been one in which there has been increased demands upon our association. The severity of the weather during the last winter, together with the stagnation in business throughout the whole year, largely increased the number of applicants beyond the ability of the society to relieve them. The necessity to discriminate, when all could not be helped, in favor of those who had been reduced from better circumstances by the pressure of the times, rendered it peculiarly embarrassing. The principle was established that we would not run in debt. In the middle of the winter, when our funds were exhausted, we made a special appeal to our patrons, to which they liberally responded; and, although the means afforded thereby were not sufficient to meet all the demands, by strict economy in distribution we were enabled to get through the season without incurring a debt. Nevertheless, we could have dispensed thousands of dollars additional if it had been in our treasury.

The "Strikes" among the laboring classes during the past year have been a subject which has caused the President and General Agent no little anxiety in the distributions committed to their care. The General Agent, in his report to the society says on this subject: "To use our means to aid those who have wilfully thrown themselves out of employment or who refused to work when they could "get it, would be a wrong use of the means of this society; and "I have refused to do it. All who were suffering from "strikes" "were not equally censurable. Some not only instigated and "urged on strikes, but threatened abuse, and even used personal "violence, against those who were willing to work—these we "refused to help under any circumstances. The others were "suffering distress and poverty, from a power they could not "control and dared not resist—this class we have sometimes "helped."

The demand for relief during the approaching winter will probably be greater than in any previous year. The continued stagnation of business in every department, and the unsettled condition of monetary affairs, will doubtless throw a large number of persons out of employment, and many will be reduced from comfortable circumstances to poverty. Great suffering will doubtless be found among the poorer classes: among mechanics, and laborers especially, as there are comparitively few buildings being erected.

With this prospect before them, the society would appeal to their patrons for liberal contributions, assuring them, that in the distribution of their benefactions, every effort will be made in relieving the wants of the suffering, to discriminate in favor of those most worthy.

In conclusion, we ask in behalf of our voluntary solicitors a courteous reception. Their labor is entirely voluntary, and their task not a pleasant one. They do not beg for themselves, but for those who are suffering. We commend these men to the citizens of Brooklyn, in the confident assurance that each will give as God has prospered him, and in so doing will find that "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

We beg leave to call special attention to the following rules:

Let it be distinctly understood that this Association is not—in its extended sense—public or general; that is, it does not belong to the public at large, but to those who annually subscribe to its funds, and only such have a right to send applicants.

This Association is organized for a special purpose, and its labors are specific. It seeks to do collectively just what the benevolent desire to do individually, viz.: to elevate the moral and physical condition of the worthy poor, and, as far as possible, relieve their necessities.

The following is an abstract of the fundamental rules by which the work of this Association is governed:

1st.—To give relief only after a personal investigation of each case, either by visitation or thorough inquiry.

2d.—To give only articles immediately necessary, and least susceptible of misuse.

3d.—To give assistance at the right moment,—not to prolong it, but to restrict and modify relief according to the necessity which calls for it.

TEMPERANCE.

4th.—To require from every one who receives aid abstinence from all intoxicating drinks as a beverage; of such as have children of a proper age that they be kept at school, unless unavoidable circumstances prevent, and that those of suitable age be apprenticed to some trade or sent to service—the design being to make the poor a party to their own improvement and elevation. The willful violation or disregard of this rule will debar the applicant from further relief.

RECENT EMIGRANTS.

5th.—To give no relief to recent emigrants, except, perhaps, in urgent cases for once, or until they can be referred to the Commissioners of Emigration, when the responsibility of this Association towards them shall cease; the reason of this rule being that the Commissioners of Emigration are obliged by law to care for such persons, if needy, during five years after their arrival, and are provided with means for this very purpose; consequently, every dollar expended on such cases by this Association would be an improper appropriation of funds intrusted to it for other objects.

THE PERMANENTLY DEPENDENT.

6th.—To give no aid to persons who, from infirmity, imbecility, old age, or any other cause, are likely to continue unable to earn their own support, and consequently to become permanently dependent. In extreme cases, or until they can be referred to the proper authorities or institutions for permanent relief, assistance may be given once or twice. The reason of this rule is, that the permanently dependent are not regarded as proper subjects for this Association, as we have no permanent fund; and, because, if these should continue to be relieved, the entire receipts of the Association would soon be exhausted in the support of a PERMANENT LIST, and our primary object, "The elevation of the moral and physical condition of the Poor," be defeated. Such persons should become an in-door public charge, which is far better for them than to rely upon incidental and uncertain relief.

PERSISTENT ALMS-SEEKERS.

7th.—To discontinue relieving all who manifest a purpose to depend on alms rather than on their own exertions for support. The maintenance of such is incompatible with the objects of this Association, because such persons soon become so debased by long-continued gratuitous relief that there is no hope of inciting them to self-support, and to aid them would be to encourage vice and indolence, and further a great social evil.

By refusing aid to the persons described, none are necessarily left to suffer. Even those who obstinately persist in their vicious course, and cannot be relieved by this charity without injury to themselves and the community, still have a resource in the legal relief to which they are referred—so that all are cared for.

The Association is not intended to supersede existing charities, but as far as practicable to supplement them and make them available to those for whom they are designed.

It will be obvious to all that this association is governed by such humane and economical considerations as have most important moral and social bearings on the individuals concerned, and the public at large. Our whole aim is to help those who will strive to help themselves.

ARTICLE XI.

It shall be the duty of the members of the Association, to endeavor in all suitable ways, to give practical effect to its principles; especially to discountenance indiscriminate almsgiving and street begging, to provide themselves with tickets of reference or members' requests, and refer persons whom they wish aided to the General Agent, in order that such cases may be properly inquired into, and if deserving, be relieved.

Solicitors for the Year ending October, 1875.

The Board of Managers gratefully acknowledge the services of the following persons, who acted as voluntary solicitors during the past year, and who collected the sums placed opposite their respective names, in the wards and streets mentioned. They would not, however, omit to state the fact that some who collected comparatively small amounts may have labored as faithfully as those who gathered much, the difference in their returns being accounted for either in the wealth, willingness, intelligence or benevolence of the residents in the different sections in which the work was performed.

Donors for the year ending October 1, 1875.

The following is a list of Members, with the amounts contributed by each for the past year. If not perfectly accurate, it is not for want of care at the office. Sometimes, however, the names are so illegibly written on collectors' books, that it is almost impossible to make them out. There were a few mistakes in last year's report. All that were discovered will be found corrected in this report.

All mistakes or omissions will be corrected at the General Office, No. 108 Livingston Street, where a permanent record is kept, and always open for the inspection of members.
